

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

GEORGE JURICH,

Plaintiff,

Case Number: 2:13-12544

v.

HONORABLE VICTORIA A. ROBERTS

HERMAN C. CAMPBELL,

Defendant.

---

ORDER DENYING PETITIONER'S APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS AND DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Michigan state prisoner George Jurich has filed a pro se civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The complaint alleges that defendant, Herman C. Campbell, while serving as a Judge for Macomb County District Court, presided over a portion of Plaintiff's state criminal trial proceedings, despite lacking subject-matter jurisdiction. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages. He has requested that he be permitted to proceed in forma pauperis in this case. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) (1996). For the reasons stated below, the Court will deny Plaintiff leave to proceed in forma pauperis and will dismiss the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

Indigent prisoners may seek to bring a civil action without prepayment of the fees and costs for the action. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). A prisoner, however, may be barred from proceeding in forma pauperis in a civil action under certain circumstances:

In no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding under this section, if the prisoner has, on 3 or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

In short, this “three strikes” provision allows the Court to dismiss a case where the prisoner seeks to proceed in forma pauperis, if, on three or more previous occasions, a federal court has dismissed the prisoner’s action because it was frivolous or malicious or failed to state a claim for which relief may be granted. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) (1996); Dupree v. Palmer, 284 F.3d 1234, 1236 (11th Cir. 2002) (holding that “the proper procedure is for the district court to dismiss the complaint without prejudice when it denies the prisoner leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to the provisions of § 1915(g)” because the prisoner “must pay the filing fee at the time he initiates the suit”). Plaintiff has filed three prior civil rights complaints which have been dismissed as frivolous or for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. See Jurich v. Michigan Department of Corrections, No. 10-11487 (E.D. Mich. Aug. 17, 2010); Jurich v. Michigan Department of Corrections, No. 10-12028 (E.D. Mich. June 15, 2010); and Jurich v. Hall, No. 93-75295 (E.D. Mich. March 22, 1994).

A plaintiff may maintain a civil action despite having had three or more civil actions dismissed as frivolous if the prisoner is “under imminent danger of serious physical injury.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). To establish that his complaint falls within the exception to the three strikes rule, a prisoner must allege that he is under imminent danger at the time that he seeks to file his complaint and proceed in forma pauperis. Vandiver v. Vasbinder, No. 08-2602, 2011 WL 1105652, *2 (6th Cir. Mar. 28, 2011). See also Malik v. McGinnis, 293 F.3d 559, 562 (2d Cir. 2002) (holding that imminent danger exception requires that the danger exist at time complaint is filed); Ashley v. Dilworth, 147 F.3d 715, 717 (8th Cir. 1998) (plaintiff sufficiently alleged imminent danger of serious physical injury where he claimed that he was placed near inmates on his enemy list and subject to ongoing danger); Banos v. O’Guin, 144 F.3d 883, 885 (5th Cir. 1998) (past body cavity searches failed to establish imminent danger of serious physical injury). Plaintiff’s allegations that Defendant presided over a portion of the state court criminal proceedings while lacking jurisdiction does not fall within the “imminent danger” exception of § 1915(g).

Accordingly, the Court DENIES Plaintiff’s application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Additionally, the Court DISMISSES the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). This dismissal is without prejudice to Plaintiff filing a new complaint with payment of the filing fee.

IT IS ORDERED.
